Role

This role will support the Department General Manager (hereinafter referred to as “DGM”), Managers, Assistant Managers and other supervisors for all investment risk management work – both new opportunities as well as existing investments – primarily within Sumitomo Corporation Europe (SCEU).

This role will report into the Department General Manager via a Manager, responsible for investment and portfolio management within SCEU.

Scope

- To support the department in providing recommendations to SCEU management on whether or not the business should proceed with an investment/divestment opportunity based on our own analysis and evaluation, including the handling of internal applications for such procedures.
- To support business departments as an “in-house advisor” in terms of investment opportunity deal sourcing as well as deal execution once approved by management, including proactively liaising with other corporate departments.
- To monitor and oversee the existing invested subsidiaries and affiliates of SCEU in order to maintain growth and profitability through budget control and decision-making for important management matters, including the handling of internal applications for such procedures.
- To consider and advise EBUs and management of SCEU’s subsidiaries and affiliates on their business and operations and offer ways to improve business performance and efficiency.
- To collaborate with Unit General Managers and other business unit personnel and support corporate development activities.
- To support the Regional Investment Committee and R&D Investment Committee as secretariat.
- To pursue and support the Full Potential Plan and ongoing “asset recycling” programme as required.

Qualifications/Skills/Personal Qualities

- University educated
- Post graduate qualifications would be preferred
- Excellent interpersonal skills and a good team player
- Analytical nature and inquisitive mindset
- Enthusiastic and eager to learn
- Enjoys a challenge and happy to be a self-starter

What We Offer

Company benefits include group pension scheme, private health insurance and free leisure centre/gym membership to name but a few.
