

We aim to be a global organization that constantly stays a step ahead in dealing with change, creates new value, and contributes broadly to society.

Our Values

Integrity & Sound Management

Integrated Corporate Strength

Vision

Change & Innovation

Commitment

Enthusiasm

Speed

Human Development

Professionalism

Welcome to Sumitomo Corporation of Americas!

Founded in 1952, Sumitomo Corporation of Americas (or “SCOA”) is the largest subsidiary of Sumitomo Corporation, one of the world’s largest traders and investors of goods and services. Our business activities run through nearly every level of the supply chain, and across numerous industries. Sumitomo Corporation of Americas operates in the United States, Canada and Mexico, and collaborates closely with our Sumitomo Corporation Group companies in Central and South America.

Sumitomo Corporation Group: Overseas Regional Organizations

22 Offices

800+

Employees

(in the Americas)

Our Key Business Areas

Metal Products

Construction & Transportation Systems

Infrastructure

Media & Digital

Energy Innovation Initiative

Living Related & Real Estate

Mineral Resources, Energy, Chemical & Electronics

Our Talent Philosophy

Our people are the Sumitomo Corporation Group's most valuable management resource. We need talent who understand and practice our values, have diverse backgrounds, and continue creating new value over the medium to long term that contributes to society at large. Therefore, we recruit, develop, and utilize our talent in a strategic and planned manner while taking group-wide measures to enhance individual capability

Diversity, Equity & Inclusion

Within Sumitomo Corporation Group, DE&I is one source of value creation, innovation and competitiveness for sustainable growth

The Power of One

We aim to be individuals that create new value on a global scale, sharing SC Group's vision and mission, and maintaining high aspirations by maintaining a continuous, intrinsic motivation with an enterprising spirit.

Planning for the Future

The Sumitomo Corporation Group values the spirit of talent development. We encourage and support individuals who are proactive in their learning and growth, and provide the resources to do so.

Supporting our Philosophy through our Five Critical Behaviors:

1

Accommodate and respect different working styles

2

Ask and listen to what matters most to others

3

Create equal and open access to information

4

Facilitate storytelling across the organization

5

Show appreciation to your team on a regular basis

A Message from our Chief People Officer

"Sumitomo Corporation of Americas strives to create a culture where all of its employees can reach their fullest potential. We believe that our culture reflects our core values. We value each and every employee's contribution and support them through their employment with Sumitomo Corporation of Americas. We carefully select the right person, for the right role, at the right time to ensure our success in providing the best career choice for our employees while supplying our company with top talent. Welcome aboard!"

Chief People Officer– Teresa A. Oakley